About us

An innovative central London meetings & events space

Just a few minutes walk from Victoria Station, 110 Rochester Row is a convenient and flexible meeting space.

With 7 rooms catering from 2 to 60 delegates, 110 Rochester Row offers the ideal space to host meetings, seminars, workshops, training courses, exhibitions, as well as product launches.

At 110 Rochester Row, everything from our pricing to our environmental policy reflects our charitable status. We are committed to helping the environment and proud to be a Zero to Landfill venue.

We are members of the Westminster Venue Collection, the HBAA and AIM accredited by the Meetings Industry Association.

Come and meet our friendly team for a chat to see how we can support you.

Our friendly and efficient events team are on-site to assist you from initial enquiry through to support on the day of your event.

Spread over two floors, this contemporary space can be rearranged based on your requirements to create one larger room, two or three rooms on each floor. Alternatively, the whole venue can be completely opened up and booked exclusively. So whether you are hosting a small conference, private meeting or workshop, our space offers the flexibility to accommodate all your needs.

Catering

Eden is one of UK's most sustainable and contemporary caterers

Our team pride themselves on personal service and excellent advice with regards to choosing menus, all the way through to ensuring those finishing touches make your event a success.

We have all the right ingredients; a subtle blend of modern culinary expertise complimented by progressive menu design.

Our aim is to source as locally as possible. We have a thorough knowledge of all our ingredients and products. Where our food comes from, how it is farmed, reared, harvested, produced and delivered is important to us. Wherever possible we buy British and seasonal produce. We design our menus around the ingredients of the season.

Our food is supplied by Eden. <https://www.edencaterers.london>.

Everything's lined up for you, and nothing's left to chance.
